GOWANS'S ART BOOKS

April 1st, 1908

MESSRS. GOWANS & GRAY ask with confidence for the continued support of this undertaking by lovers of art. It is their hope to be able to cover the whole field of classic painting, and the preparation of new volumes is being carried on steadily and systematically with this end in view.

As new editions of the earlier volumes are required, improvements are being introduced and doubtful pictures replaced by genuine works, well-known authorities—whose names are given—being followed in every case. Rubens and Van Dyck have already appeared in this improved form, and Rembrandt, Raphael, and Reynolds are being actively proceeded with.

The publishers hope to accelerate the issue of the series by publishing future volumes at regular monthly intervals, and their efforts will be very much assisted if those who appreciate the books will place standing orders, "till further notice," with their booksellers.

They beg to announce the following :

No. 16.—THE MASTERPIECES OF DEL SARTO [May 1st, 1908

No. 17.—THE MASTERPIECES OF CORREGGIO [June 1st, 1908

No. 18.—THE MASTERPIECES OF BRONZINO [July 1st, 1908

No. 19.—THE MASTERPIECES OF WATTEAU [August 1st, 1908

No. 20.—THE MASTERPIECES OF BOTTICELLI [September 1st, 1908

No. 21.—THE MASTERPIECES OF FRA ANGELICO [October 1st, 1908

Gowans's Colour Prints.

WITH the object of encouraging really high-class artistic decoration of the home, Messrs. Gowans & Gray have commenced the issue of a series of coloured pictures by leading artists, painted specially for themselves, in neat brown or white paper frames, ready to hang on the wall, at the quite unprecedented price of One Shilling each.

No. 1. is "MY POOR DOG TRAY," by Charles Pears, in which the Artist has been eminently successful in rendering the pathetic line from Thomas Campbell's well-known poem, The Harper, "Nor refused my last crumb to his pitiful face."

No. 2. is "APPLE BLOSSOM," by Jessie M. King, in which this remarkable artist's beautiful work is seen at its best.

No. 3. is "FAR FROM THE MADDING CROWD," by Stephen Reid, being a view of Stoke Pogis Churchyard, to which Gray's famous elegy refers, painted on the spot by the artist.

These prints can be had through any bookseller or printseller, or direct from the publishers for 1/4 each, post free.

1908

IN order that the present volume might be really worthy of its title the publishers have included in it only such pictures as are admitted by Mr. Berenson to be genuine Botticellis. Almost all of the paintings he accepts are to be found here, certainly all the most important. In the case of some of the greatest works of the master a few very interesting reproductions of details have been given, as well as photographs of the whole picture.
